

FIELD ENFORCEMENT DIVISION

Empowering Maryland Consumers, Safeguarding Small Businesses & Protecting our Kids

As Maryland's chief regulator of alcohol, tobacco, and motor fuel, Comptroller Peter Franchot has strictly enforced our laws to empower Maryland consumers, safeguard small businesses, and protect our kids. Whether it's combating cigarette smuggling, working to keep alcohol out of the hands of minors and kids, cracking down on tax fraud, or leading the bipartisan effort to modernize our alcohol laws, Comptroller Franchot is proud of his Field Enforcement Division agents — all of whom are career law enforcement officers who are dedicated to SERVING THE PEOPLE.
