

Voter Registration – Statewide

- The total number of registered voters in the State (just under 4.2 million active registered voters at the end of 2023) has been steadily increasing. While the largest numbers of new registrations occur in presidential election years, in more recent years, the number of new registrations occurring in years other than presidential election years has increased.

Total Maryland Registered Voters
2000-2023

New Maryland Registered Voters
2000-2023

