

Voter Registration – Statewide

- The total number of registered voters in the State (just under 4.2 million active registered voters at the end of 2022) has been steadily increasing. The largest numbers of new registrations occur in presidential election years; however, in more recent years, the number of new registrations occurring in years other than presidential election years has been increasing.

Total Maryland Registered Voters
2000-2022

New Maryland Registered Voters
2000-2022

