

Orphans' Court Schedule for All Jurisdictions in Maryland

Short Summary of Document Titled "Court Schedules"

- All of the orphans' courts are part-time jobs for each individual judge.
- Only Baltimore City and Baltimore County have judges holding hearings daily, but the judges sit on a rotating basis daily in the City and weekly in the County.
- In Prince George's County, hearings are held three days a week, with each judge sitting one day per week. Occasionally schedule other hearings and conduct chamber work other days and court meets jointly monthly.
- In Harford and Howard counties, the Circuit Courts hold hearings weekly, but are available any time to sign orders or address emergencies.
- In Montgomery County, the Circuit Court holds hearings four out of five days a week and sometimes five out of five days a week.
- All other jurisdictions, the orphans' courts hold hearings .05-2 days a week.
